Impact of HPV CME Symposium
Our Waterford Care Center will host a CME Symposium on the Impact of HPV on Head and Neck and Cervical Cancers on Thursday, April 26, at Lawrence + Memorial Hospital. Yale Cancer Center's Dr. Barbara Burtness and Dr. Elena Ratner presented at the dinner course, hosted by Dr. Jane Kanowitz.

A team of Yale Cancer Center investigators led by Roy Herbst, MD, PhD, has been awarded the 2018 Team Science Award from the Association for Clinical and Translational Science (ACTS) for its pioneering work in advancing our understanding of Immunotherapy. The ACTS team science award recognizes the efforts of interdisciplinary teams in the translation of research discoveries into clinical applications and eventually widespread clinical practice.

Development Update

Yale Cancer Center and Smilow Cancer Hospital joined attendees at the Gala for a Cure on March 3 at Woodwinds in Branford, hosted by the Melissa Marottoli Hogan Foundation and the Marottoli family. Funds raised at the Gala benefit clinical and translational research in immunotherapy and research in thoracic oncology at Smilow Cancer Hospital.

Lindsay Marottoli Greenberg, Dr. Scott Gettinger, Dr. Charles Fuchs, Kristen Marottoli Peck
Yale Faculty are urged to take a few minutes to complete a short survey of research data management practices by faculty. The survey will help the university understand current practices involving research data, assess the campus need for research data management, identify potential gaps in existing services, and help inform planning and resource allocation. Please take the time to share your feedback.
